

Intimate session with young entrepreneurs held

Asam Sahitya Sabha organised an intimate session with a batch of young and successful entrepreneurs at the Guwahati Book Fair stage on January 6. The programme, presided over by president Dr Kuladhar Saikia, was held under the auspices of Sabha's Yuva Sangsad sub-committee and was graced by the presence of two eminent management and entrepreneurship administrators Santikam Hazarika and Amiya Kumar Sarma as resource persons.

The programme began with the sub-committee working president Prafulla Barman elaborating the objective which was followed by Sabha's general secretary Jadab Chandra Sharma's welcome address. Dr Saikia, in his opening remark highlighted the significant role of the young entrepreneurs to build up economic foundation of Assam.

In all, over 20 local entrepreneurs of Assam shining in different fields of business addressed the gathering and explained about their struggle and success, business expansion and future plans. They are: Atul Lahkar, Smti Shanti Doley, Manoram Gogoi, Dr Madhumita Saikia, Karishma Begum, Ajit Sarma Barua, Ranjit Sarma, Pranjal Barua, Nayanjyoti Bhattacharyya, Rajib Deka, Manas Chaliha, Ranjit Barua and Shatarshi Bhattacharyya.

The resource persons Shri Hazarika and Shri Sarma spoke in brief about praiseworthy efforts of the young entrepreneurs in various new and unexplored arenas. Dr Saikia in his presidential remark conveyed his heartfelt wishes to all the young entrepreneurs and also appealed to the young generation of Assam to think seriously about entering in the arena of business and corporate sector with new and innovative mindset. The programme was conducted by the sub-committee convenor Siddhartha Sankar Bezbarua.

Entrepreneurs are seen along with Amiya Kr. Sarma,
Dr. Kuladhar Saikia & Santikam Hazarika after the programme